Hello Friends,

Happy New Year! We hope you had a safe and restful holiday season and were able to celebrate 2022 with people you love. We also hope you’re ready for 2022 — welcoming the new year refreshed and ready to get to work. MSC and our partners have a lot planned for the coming year, and we can’t wait to share the myriad of stories, events, and accomplishments with you.

In the meantime, start 2022 right: invest in your rest.

“We rest knowing that spaciousness, gentleness, ease, and joy are part of the world we are dreaming into being.

Naps in the sunshine. A lazy cup of tea in bed. A deep belly breath. And another. That song or book or poem that touches your heart every time.

We rest knowing that worldbuilding takes many forms. And naps can be a radical practice”

Enjoy this year-end meditation offering from Resonance Network — in its written form or by listening to the recorded audio provided by Resonance Network’s beloved co–director Alexis Flanagan.
